About Hexed Places

Hexed Places are outdoor locations and encounters based on the classic six-mile hex format and OSR sensibilities. Use these locales as a quick side adventure, to fill a blank spot in your campaign sandbox, or expand upon them to create a multi-session campaign. Each Hexed Places includes a regional overview; expanded one-mile per hex maps for players and GMs; encounter, treasure, and rumor lists and tables; and descriptions of individual locations, encounters, and features within the hex.

Contents and Usage

Player and GM Maps

The maps provide a detailed look at the region at a one-mile per hex scale. The player version of the map does not include roads / trails or locale icons.

Introduction and Rumors

This section provides a broad overview of the region, outlining major physical features and obstacles. It also includes a set of rumors that may or may not provide accurate information about the region.

Locations

The major locations in the region are detailed in this section. Each location is referenced by hex coordinates and a name. Locations are ordered by coordinates, upper left to lower right.

Encounters

This table reflects the typical creature population of the hex. Its primary purpose is to provide wandering monster encounters, but it can also be used to fill in blank spaces on the map, or as a tool for populating nearby locales.

Extras

The Extras section details any unique creatures, treasures, or magic items mentioned in the text. It also includes any tables referenced in the main document.

Stat Blocks

All creatures and NPCs in Hexed Places include simple stat blocks as a standard frame of reference. Here is a sample:

Orcs (5) - AC 6 (13), HD 1, #AT 1, D 1d6, MV 9

Hate the sun. Treasure: 2d6 GP, 2d6 SP each.

This stat block represents five, one hit-die Orcs. Armor Class (AC) values are given as descending (ascending). An unarmored character is AC 9 (10) and chainmail provides AC 5 (14). Movement (MV) is given in generic units. Unburdened humans are MV 12. Special abilities and treasure are appended as needed.

Treasure

Creature and locale descriptions include treasure listings. Since treasure can have a major impact on the campaign, the GM should carefully review these listings and adjust them to suit their game. Intelligent foes should make use of any treasure they carry.

Experience

Hexed Places does not provide experience point values for encounters, foes, or treasure. This element is very system- and group-dependent, so it is left in the hands of the GM.

Notes:

The Gray Ribs

The Gray Ribs are rugged mountains, their rocky and barren slopes broken here and there by forested hills and lesser peaks. The main east to west ridge line (Hex 01.02 to Hex 08.03) creates a natural border between the northern and southern halves of the area, though there are several passes that cross this range. Two small waterways, fed by snowmelt and scattered springs, serve as potential routes into or out of the region. Several rough cart paths crisscross the southern area, converging on Stone Root Village (Hex 03.04).

Rumors

Slavers find ready buyers for their unfortunate captives at Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03). The Bugbear overseers are none too picky about who suffers in the depths, so long as they work.

The Bugbears offer live sacrifices to dark creatures of the night, flying blood-suckers that inhabit foul pits beneath the mountains.

A trio of adventurers boasted that they would rid the mountains of the night horrors that haunt the region. They went into the Gray Ribs five years ago, and never returned.

Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03) produces nuggets of pure silver. The Bugbears are using this wealth to arm their allies, a prequel to launching attacks against neighboring settlements.

There are hidden caves near Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03), perfect for spying on the Bugbear village and planning a strike. Look for the huge yellow stones.

The forests of the Gray Ribs are protected by sylvan creatures. Cutting down trees can be hazardous to one's health.

Locations

Hex 01.03 - Yellow Rock Caves

A massive stone outcropping gives this complex its name and marks the largest of three entrances to the caverns. For the most part the caves are dry and rocky, with irregular floors and rough walls. Many show signs of temporary occupation; travelers, slavers, Bugbear patrols, escaped slaves and wild creatures often use them as temporary shelter. There is a 50% chance one or more of the cave entrances are occupied. Use the Encounters table to determine current visitors.

Hex 03.04 - Stone Root Village

This crude village is home to the slaves, workers, and overseers of Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03). A dozen huts and a central great hall are home the Bugbear overseers, while several well-secured, barracks-like structures house the slaves that work the mines and fields. Two large open-sided structures house the smelter, smithy, and ore-processing facilities, and there is a deep well near the great hall. A few poor farm fields and rocky pastures lie beyond the low stone wall that marks the edge of the settlement.

The village is home to 30 Bugbears, led by the powerful but aging Dragor. He is assisted by his chief lieutenant and rival Klurga, and village shaman Lughbor. 20 of the Bugbears are fit and active; the rest are weak, old, or children.

Dragor (1) - AC 3 (16), HD 5, #AT 1, D halberd (+2 STR), MV 9

Stealthy, strong, clever. Treasure: 30 GP, 25 SP, +1 ring of protection, healing potion.

Klurga (1) - AC 4 (15), HD 4, #AT 1, D Painbite (+1 STR), MV 8

Stealthy, strong, ambitious. Treasure: 20 GP, 20 SP, Painbite (see Extras).

Lughbor (1) - AC 5 (14), HD 3+1, #AT 1, D quarterstaff, MV9

Stealthy, level 3 priest. Treasure: 35 GP, 25 SP, Rod of Apathy (see Extras).

Bugbears (20) - AC 5 (14), HD 3+1, #AT 1, D 2d4 or by weapon, MV 9

Stealthy. Treasure: 5 GP, 20 SP each. Two or three have Minor Loot (see Extras).

Weak Bugbears (10) - AC 8 (11), HD 2+1, #AT 1, D 1d4 or by weapon, MV 9

Stealthy, cowardly. Treasure: 15 SP each. One has Minor Loot (see Extras).

Slaves (3d10) - AC 9 (10), HD 1, #AT 1, D 1d4, MV 9

Feeble, chained.

A locked chest in the great hall (trapped with a poison needle) holds the village's accumulated wealth: 900 GP, 1700 SP, 200 GP in raw silver nuggets. Dragor carries the key. There are also three small caches of personal wealth hidden in various Bugbear huts, holding a total of 95 GP, 240 SP.

Encounters (roll 1d20)

1-4 Gnoll Slavers

A well-armed band of Gnolls heading to or from Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03). If they're heading to the mine they'll have a coffle of slaves in their midst; if they're heading away they'll be carrying an additional 40-160 GP, payment for a recent delivery. The group carries several days supplies and three items of Minor Loot (see Extras) in addition to treasure noted below.

Gnoll Leader (1) - AC 5 (14), HD 4, #AT 1, D long sword (+2 STR), MV 9

Fierce, aggressive, speaks common. Treasure: 5 GP, 25 SP, 80 GP silver armbands, long sword.

Gnolls (2d6) - AC 5 (14), HD 2, #AT 1, D 2d4 or by weapon (+1 STR), MV 9

Fierce, aggressive. Treasure: 5 GP, 25 SP, a good weapon each.

Slaves (2d4) - AC 9 (10), HD 1, #AT 1, D 1d4, MV 9

Feeble, chained.

5-8 Bugbear Patrol

A group of Bugbears, scouting the area for intruders, escaped slaves, or wild game. All members of the patrol carry basic supplies for a few days, a missile weapon (spears, slings, or throwing axes), and a melee weapon in addition to treasure noted below. Patrols will attempt to avoid detection and report back to Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03).

Bugbears (2d4) - AC 5 (14), HD 3+1, #AT 1, D 2d4 or by weapon, MV 9

Stealthy. Treasure: 5 GP, 20 SP each. One or two have Minor Loot (see Extras).

9-11 Iron Haulers (roadways only, treat as Bugbear Patrol elsewhere)

A group of Bugbears leading Slaves hitched to iron-filled carts. All Bugbears carry basic supplies for a few days, a missile weapon (spears, slings, or throwing axes), and a melee weapon in addition to treasure noted below. If attacked the bugbears will flee towards Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03), leaving the slaves and carts behind.

Bugbears (2d6) - AC 5 (14), HD 3+1, #AT 1, D 2d4 or by weapon, MV 9

Stealthy. Treasure: 5 GP, 20 SP each. One or two have Minor Loot (see Extras).

Slaves (3d4) - AC 9 (10), HD 1, #AT 1, D 1d4, MV 9

Feeble, chained.

12 Escaped Slaves

A ragtag group of escapees from Dragor's Mine (Hex 04.03). These unfortunates still wear the heavy leg irons all slaves are fitted with when they arrive at the mine. They have nothing of value, but they can describe the layout and occupants of the mine and nearby Stone Root Village (Hex 03.04).

Slaves (1d4+1) - AC 9 (10), HD 1, #AT 1, D 1d4, MV 9

Feeble, chained.

Extras

Painbite

This axe appears to be nothing special, a heavy, single-bladed axe with a blackened wooden handle. Careful examination reveals a small demonic rune etched into the blade. The weapon is enchanted for accuracy and damage (+2). Any natural 19 or 20 attack roll invokes Painbite's unique power. Targets so struck must make a saving throw versus magic or suffer wracking pain in their limbs and head. Victims drop all held items, any spell being cast is ruined, and they cannot act for one round.

The axe's unique ability is powered by a minor imp imprisoned within the blade. This creature will goad Painbite's owner to violence whenever possible, whispering suggestions in their ear and inflicting minor discomforts upon them.

Rod of Apathy

The Rod of Apathy has a thick metal shaft, about thirty inches long, tipped with an orb of pure white stone. Those touched by this insidious magical device must make a saving throw versus magic or lose the will to do, well, anything. They will stand around in a daze, taking no action unless directed by another. They heed all suggestions offered by friend or foe, randomly following any directions they are given.

The Rod of Apathy's effects last for a full hour. It's potent power can be invoked twice a day, and requires a successful to hit roll against an unwilling target.
